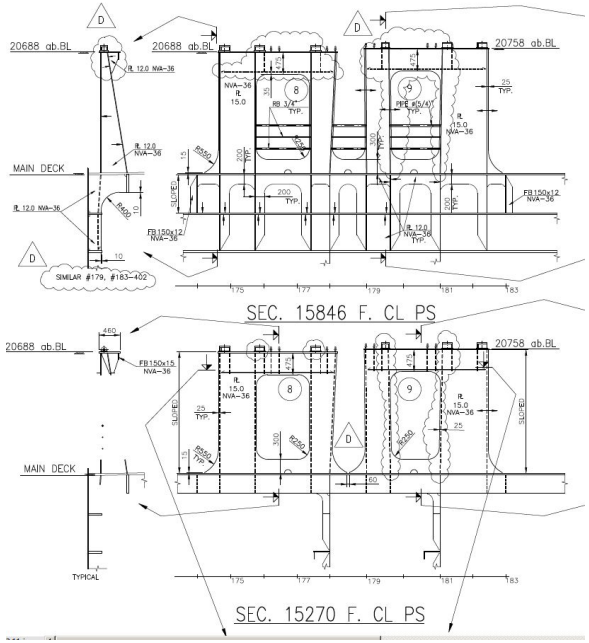
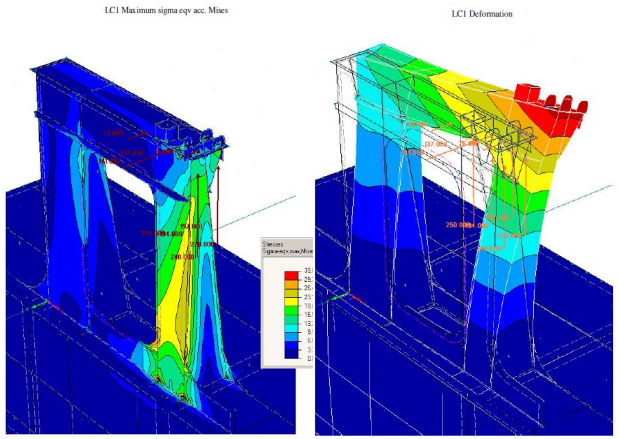
Stanchions




To maximize the profitability of a vessel, MEC offers the design and installation of stanchions on board of any container vessel. Stanchions optimize the usable space for the transportation of the maximum number of containers by enabling the placement of container stacks beside the holds or between the hatches.