

Lashing Bridges

MEC provides lashing bridges design from FEM calculation to workshop drawings

MEC is a specialist for the development of container lashing bridges. Our lashing bridges are mounted on container ships as well as on barges using specially engineered modular deck frames (patent pending). MEC's proprietary design features simplify and accelerate retrofit installation of lashing bridges. Our solutions help you to save time and money.

